So the amendment was rejected;

Mr. Worthington then moved to amend said amendment by striking out in said section in the thirty-fourth line the word "five" and insert "six;"

Determined in the negative.

Mr. Ely moved to suspend the further consideration of the order of the day for the purpose of offering an order,

Resolved in the affirmative.

Mr. Ely then submitted the following order, which was twice read and adopted:

Ordered, That when this house adjourn it shall stand adjourned until Monday morning nine o'clock;

On motion of Mr. Crisfield,

The house adjourned until Monday morning nine o'clock.

MONDAY, March 6th, 1837.

The House met. Present the same members as on Saturday. The proceedings of Saturday were read.

Mr. Gardiner presented a petition of Edward Turner, of Charles county, counter to the petition of Martha Turner, relative to the guardianship of her children;

Mr. Keene presented a petition of sundry citizens of Maryland, praying the partial repeal of the tonnage law there in mentioned;

Mr. Keene also presented a petition of Levin W. Tall, of Dorchester county, praying the passage of a law to make valid a certain receipt therein mentioned;

Which were severally read and referred to the committee on grievances and courts of justice.

Mr. Palmer presented a petition of the Directors of the Silk Company of Queen Anne's county, praying to be released from the payment of the county tax on the property of said company;

Which was read and referred to Messrs. Palmer, Hemsley and Harrison.
